Rajasthani is the mother tongue (mayur bhasha) of the Rajasthani people. It is spoken by about 80-100 million people in Rajasthan, neighbouring states, and around the world. It has a rich literature and history going back to Kuvalayamala and the Dingal tradition into the present day. Well-known dialects are Marwari, Mewari, Dhundhari, Shekhawati, Hadauti, Malvi, and others. Many musicians also sing in Rajasthani, such as Mame Khan and Ila Arun. In the past, Rajasthani used the Modiya (Mahajani) script, but nowadays uses the Devanagari script.
